

February, 2024

Public Meeting - St John's Church

The Church in Wales (CinW) is planning to sell St John's Church in Llangwm, nr Usk, which has been closed for some years. St Jerome's has also since shut and continues to be looked after by the Friends of Friendless Churches.

Bob Evans, Chair of the Monmouth Diocesan Advisory Committee for the CinW, and the Revd. Sally Ingle Gillis, the new Ministry Area Leader, are keen to explain what will happen next as well as hear the views and to answer questions from local people.

They've asked for a Public Meeting which will be held at Llangwm Village Hall, NP15 1HG, on Wednesday, 28 February, at 7.30pm. It'll be hosted by Llantrisant Fawr Community Council.

Everyone is invited to attend.

If you are unable to make the meeting and have any points/questions you'd like raised, please email llantrisantfawr@gmail.com by Monday, 26 February.